Instructions and security

Your stand is a standard stand, provided by the organizer.

The exhibitors should respect the dimensions of their provided stand (height and surface area). It is strictly forbidden to dismantle all or one part of the structures.

Any deterioration caused to the installations or decorations will be charged to the exhibitors. The exhibition walls, pillars, windows, doors and other won't be used for any decoration.

Sound animations and audiovisuals demonstrations shouldn't bother other exhibitors. The organizer has the right to put down the sound level when he judges it useful or to make the animation stop completely in case of noise pollution noticed on the surrounding stands.

Only the following visual systems are authorized :

- Advertisement fixed with blu tack on the stand's partition
- Advertisement hanged by a small chain on the stand's structure
- Advertisement hanged by a cymatium on the stand's structure
- Digital sheet

It is absolutely forbidden to conduct :

- Any work on the flues, water pipes, electrical circuits, waste pipes, elevators, goods lifts and pipe trenches.
- Any hole drilling for fixing or sealing up
- Any removal of doors, antenna mounting, etc.

Any repair of consecutive damages following the inobservance of the above clauses would be fully charged to the exhibitor.

Please note that damages to the Salon Honnorat or Espace Adenauer's infrastructure, especially to the pillars, walls, floors and ceilings, will be fully charged to the exhibitor.

Only organizing teams are entitled to intervene on the electric boxes. In case of violation of the fuses inside the electric boxes or fraud on the fuses calibration, the responsibility goes to the exhibitor.

The exhibitors have to leave their stands and especially the partitions, wall-to-wall carpets, printed signs in the same state they found it before the event.

Warning : it is forbidden to nail down, screw on, glue on the structure, any deterioration will be charged to the exhibitor.

Exhibitors are required to plan the removal of the packing materials they want to keep, before the beginning of the event. If some elements on the stand are abandoned, the clearing, cleaning and putting in skip will be charged to the exhibitor.

For obvious security reasons, it is categorically forbidden to block up the way with any gear. It is important to help along the circulation of people inside the exhibition room. During the setup and the dismantling, the exhibitor have to leave a way at least equivalent to the width of a pallet.

The introduction of dangerous, toxic, burnable, combustible materials in the building, as well as explosive or radioactive substances, is forbidden.
